The Davis Company's Plant at the Peni tentiary to Be Enlarged.

The plant of the Davis Shoe Company, who now lease a large portion of the State Penitentiary, will be considerably enlarged to meet the growing trade of this firm, and the number of convicts employed in the immense factory will be greatly increased.

Messrs, Joseph Davis and John Shaw, of Boston, and Mr. H. C. Thatcher, of Yarmouth, Mass., who are all largely interested in the company, have recently been negotiating for the lease of the North Carolina benitentary with a view to employing 1,100 or more convicts therein in the manufacture of shoes. These residents of the Bay State have also had several conferences with the directors of the Virgina prison with reference to the enlargement of their plant here.
